OBSERVATIONAL DRAWING

with Claudine O'Sullivan

Illustrator Claudine O'Sullivan shares her illustration process in a live observational drawing session. Starting with some short sketching exercises, Claudine will share her initial drawing process and gives tips for those looking to start drawing again or those wanting a different approach to sketching.

The session will work up into a quick colour study, looking at the relationship between colour and form. Claudine will be using Derwent Graphic and Coloursoft pencils and for this session, focusing on fresh herbs from her kitchen.
